

REPORT ON LEGAL AID CAMP

St. Thomas' College of Law organized a Legal Camp on 15.02.2021 at the famous Bhagat Singh Smarak School Mohiapur, Greater Noida. The students of B.A.LL.B participated in it specially the first-year students, for whom it was a maiden experience. More than 200 students of Bhagat Singh Smarak School and adjoining villages attended the event.

The learned members of Law Faculty Ms. Simmi Pal, Mr. Adnan Irshad, Mr. Dhananjay Kumar Mishra and Dr. Niti Sinha addressed the gathering. Then, Professor (Dr) K.S. Bhati, Honourable Advisor to St. Thomas' College of Law enlightened the participants regarding the importance and usefulness of legal education. The Learned Faculty Members were flanked and supported heartily by the learned Principal of the School, Ms. Seema Rani.

Law students canvassed and discussed different social and legal issues with young children and the villagers. The paramount issues discussed were burning social problems like gender disparity, female feticide, dowry death, free legal aid, right to education, consumer rights and solutions regarding refusal to file First Information Report.

First year students, Ravi Shekhar, Sameer Khan, Gaurav Bansal, Ritesh Gautam, Zubia Ali, Abel S. Daniel, Kamini Jha and Soumya Shubham actively participated and led their groups in the counselling session.

After the initial phase, attendees asked questions for guidance. They were apprised about the legal aid cell of St. Thomas' College of Law.

Finally, the STCL team was felicitated by the Principal of Bhagat Singh Smarak School and other respectable persons of the Gram Sabha. Many youngsters also expressed their desire to study law and the programme culminated with high zeal and good hopes.
