Report on Webinar on the Trafficking in Persons (Protection, Care and Rehabilitation) Bill, 2021

A National Webinar on the theme “Critical Appraisal of the Trafficking in Persons (Prevention, Care and Rehabilitation) Bill, 2021 was held on Friday, the 17th September 2021, at 4 PM on Google Meet. It was organized by the St. Thomas College of Law; Greater Noida The purpose of the Webinar was to dissect the pros and cons of this important piece of legislation. Eminent speakers and distinguished academicians were called to present their views.

As per the tradition of STCL, speakers and thinkers from amongst the main stakeholders viz the Judiciary, the Bar and the Academics were present.

Justice (Dr.) Bharat Bhushan Parsoon, Former Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court was invited as the Hon'ble Chief Guest. He meticulously dealt with each and every aspect of the Bill and highlighted the challenges with the prism of Human Rights.

Dr. Ritu Bhardwaj, Advocate, Supreme Court of India was invited as the Guest of Honour, She vociferously raised the issue of implementation with trafficking laws and explained the various challenges faced on the field with a practical and pragmatic approach. She explained craftily the issues arising in such matters while implementing the law in the Courts and practical arena.

Dr. Anurag Deep, Professor, Indian Law Institute, was invited as Expert Academic Speaker who very skillfully dissected the entire Bill, part by part, in his own unique style. He elucidated various concepts smoothly with Power Point Presentation.

Then, the meeting was thrown open for Question and Answer Session where the attendees passionately asked questions and received answers from the experts. The webinar culminated with Thanksgiving and Concluding Remarks by Prof (Dr. K.S. Bhati), Hony. Advisor to the St. Thomas' College of Law, Greater Noida.
